

No discrimination with regards to law and order : Chief Minister

Chief Minister expresses grief at the Mathura incident, extends sympathy to bereaved families

DGP asked to visit Mathura, take necessary steps : Yogi ji

Lucknow: 16 May, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji told the state assembly today that there would be no discrimination on the law and order front and nobody involved in a criminal act will be spared. Expressing grief over the Mathura incident, the Chief Minister extended his sympathies to the bereaved families and said that people responsible for the crime will be brought to justice.

Yogi ji further said that the DGP has been directed to visit Mathura and get a briefing of the incident and ensure that the perpetrators of the crime are acted upon in set timelines. Referring to the Saharanpur incident, the Chief Minister said for the incident, a local group and a former legislator of a political party have been found responsible.

He forewarned unscrupulous elements that they will not be spared at any cost if they try to disrupt peace, law and order in the state.

Eng. PN-CM-Law & Order-16 May, 2017