

Chief Minister listens to peoples problems

Officers directed to promptly dispose of the problems raised

Lucknow : 17 May, 2017

Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji today listened to the problems raised by the people, at his official residence. People from far-flung parts of the state handed over their petitions personally to the Chief Minister. Yogi ji directed officers to promptly dispose of the problems raised by the people and assured the people of justice.

Ms. Savitri Devi from Kanpur requested the Chief Minister for job as a defendant and Ms. Rajni Saxena of Lucknow requested for pension. Ms. Shiv Kumari from Rae Bareli sought financial assistance from the Chief Minister for her daughters' marriage.

Other than these a large number of people met the Chief Minister and apprised him of their problems. The Chief Minister assured them of prompt justice.
