

People apprise the Chief Minister of their problems

Officers directed to promptly address the problems faced by people

Lucknow : 19 May, 2017

People from far flung areas of the state met Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji today at his official residence and apprised him of their problems. They also handed over their applications personally to the Chief Minister. Yogi ji assured the people of prompt action on the issues raised by them and directed the officials to ensure prompt redressal.

Ms Noorbano from Kanpur sought financial help from the Chief Minister for her treatment while Mr Rajaram Maurya from Balrampur requested for compensation against a land that was acquired. Mr Rahul from Rampur asked for 'divyang' pension.

Other than these people, a large number of people also petitioned the Chief Minister with their problems. The Chief Minister assured all of them of expeditious disposal of their problems.
