

Chief Minister lends ears to People's Problems

Lucknow : 06 June, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji listened to problems of the people at his official residence today. People from far-flung areas of the state petitioned the Chief Minister and handed over their applications personally to him.

Assuring the petitioners of prompt redressal to their problems, the Chief Minister also directed concerned officials for quick solutions to the matters raised today. Ms. Qamar Jahan from Sambhal requested the Chief Minister for a ration card while Ms. Vaishali from Kannauj requested Yogi ji for admission of her daughter to a school and fees waiver.

Mr. Rajesh from Basti sought old age pension. Other than these people, a large number of people also met the Chief Minister and raised issues facing them and sought help for their redressal. Chief Minister thereafter asked officials to take effective steps to solve the problems being faced by the people.
