

Chief Minister listens to the problems of People
Instructs officials to take effective steps to sort the problems

Lucknow: 07 June, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji listened to problems of the people at his official residence today and assured them of prompt and effective action on the issues raised by them. He thereafter directed officials to expedite redressal of the matters raised before him.

Ms. Babita from Shamli district informed the Chief Minister of not being given financial assistance under the Farmers Accidental Insurance Scheme and sought compensation. Mr. Ashish from Farukkhabad requested for 'Divyang Pension' and Lucknow's Mr. Madan Lal Shukla asked for financial assistance for treatment of his kidney ailment.

Other than these, a large number of people also met the Chief Minister and handed them over their applications personally to Yogi ji.
