

Chief Minister listens to people's problems

Officers directed to expeditiously solve the problems

Lucknow: 10 June, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji today met a large number of people at his official residence and heard out their problems. People from far-flung areas of the state handed over their petitions personally to the Chief Minister.

He assured the people of early and satisfactory solutions to their problems and directed officers to expeditiously sort them out. Ms. Nirmala Shukla from Sitapur sought 'divyaang' pension while Ms. Juleba Devi from Siddhartanagar asked for financial assistance for her son's kidney treatment.

Mr. Raees from Moradabad sought consolidation of his land and Mr. Balwant Singh from Kanpur informed the Chief Minister of what he called were wrong allegations on his son and asked for a fair probe in the matter.

Other than these people, many more also apprised the Chief Minister of their problems. The Chief Minister assured them of prompt disposal.
