

Chief Minister listens to people's problems
Officers directed to expeditiously solve the problem

Lucknow : 11 June, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji today met a large number of people at his official residence and heard out their problems. People from far-flung areas of the state handed over their petitions personally to the Chief Minister.

He assured the people of early and satisfactory solutions to their problems and directed officers to expeditiously sort them out. Ms. Sunita from Deoria asked for pension while Mr. Shyam Sunder from Chandauli sought financial help for treatment of his mother who is suffering from brain tumour.

Mr. Sarkar Pandey from Sant Kabeernagar asked for job as dependent of a deceased and Mr. Tularam from Basti sought a house for his family. Other than these people, many more also apprised the Chief Minister of their problems. The CM assured them of prompt disposal.
