

Chief Minister listens to the problems faced by People

Officials asked to expeditiously resolve them

Lucknow: 17 June, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji met a large cross section of people here today at his official residence and heard them out. Assuring them of prompt action on all the matters that were raised, chief minister also directed concerned officials to ensure prompt redressal of the same.

Mr. Pankaj Kumar Mishra from Jaunpur and Mr. Rakesh Kumar from Bareilly sought the intervention of the Chief Minister in getting encroachment on their land removed and Mr. Maik Singh from Muzaffarnagar asked for action against some miscreants who barged into his house and beat his family up.

Mr. Shailendra Kumar Dwivedi from Allahabad requested the chief minister to get his younger brother a job. Other than these, many others too petitioned Yogi ji with their problems and sought his help. The Chief Minister assured them of prompt and appropriate action on all their complaints.

Most of the matters raised before the Chief Minister pertained to financial assistance, agricultural lease documents, power supply, house allotment, potable water, illegal encroachment on land, pension, revenue, irregularities in revenue records, subsidy for marriage and personal treatment.
