

Chief Minister listens to People's problems

Lucknow: 19 June, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji today met a large number of people at his official residence and heard them out. People handed over their applications personally to the Chief Minister, after which he assured them of prompt and just action on their petitions.

Ms. Kamla Devi from Sant Kabirnagar district sought help from the Chief Minister to find her son who has been missing for the last five years while Mr. K.L. Bhatt, resident of Alambagh in Lucknow complained about the absence of drains etc. in his locality because of which water logging was a big problem for locals.

Mr. Nirahu from Shrawasti requested for marriage subsidy. Other than these, a large number of people also met the chief minister and apprised him of their problems. Yogi ji directed officers to expeditiously sort out the matters raised today.
