

Press Information Bureau
(C.M. Information Campus)
Information & Public Relations Department, U.P.

Head of the All-India Akhada Parishad calls on the Chief Minister

Chief Minister holds deliberations of preparations and management of the Prayag Ardh Kumbh-2019

State government will take care of the facilities and security of all visitors from India and abroad : Chief Minister

Lucknow: 07 July, 2017

Head of the All-India Akhada Parishad, Allahabad Mahant Narendra Giri ji called on Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanathji at his official residence here today.

The meeting was with regards to the preparations for the the Prayag Ardh Kumbh-2019. Providing this information, a State Government spokesman informed that the Chief Minister and Mahant Giri held wide ranging and detailed deliberations on the successful organization of the mega religious event.

During the meeting, Yogi Adityanath ji also expressed the desire to meet all the office bearers of the Akhada Parishad at the earliest.

He also assured the head of the Akhada Parishad that the state Government was seriously committed to ensuring all facilities and fool-proof security for domestic and foreign visitors to the Ardh Kumbh in 2019 so that there is no inconvenience to them. All the arrangements would be in place in time, Yogi ji further said.

Eng. PN-CM-Meeting with Mahant Narendra Giri-07 July, 2017