

Press Information Bureau
(C.M. Information Campus)
Information & Public Relations Department, U.P.

Chief Minister greets Mr. Ram Nath Kovind on being elected the President of India

Election of Mr Kovind as President has enhanced the honor of rural people and the Dalit community : Chief Minister

Lucknow: 20 July, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji has congratulated NDA candidate Mr. Ram Nath Kovind ji on being elected the next president of India, himself and on the behalf of the people of the state as well. Terming his election as a moment of pride and honor, the Chief Minister said under the guidance of Mr. Kovind, the honor of the country would be enhanced further.

In a congratulatory message released this evening, the chief minister said that it was due to the positive thinking of Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi and the BJP Parliamentary Board that the nation has got such a fine person as president, one who has an impeccable record in a long public life. The president elect comes from a rural background and his deep roots there will enhance the standing of the rural people and Dalit community.

Yogi ji also pointed out that Mr. Kovind has always worked for the welfare of the poor, Dalits and the marginalized sections of the society and his election would further develop the social awareness in the country.

Eng. PN-CM-Congratulations to Mr. Ram Nath Kovind-20 July, 2017