

Chief Minister listens to the problems of people
Officers asked to promptly address problems

Lucknow: 01 August, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji today heard out the problems of people at his official residence. People from far-flung areas of the state met the Chief Minister and handed over applications personally to him.

Assuring the complainants of speedy redressal of their problems, the Chief Minister also directed officers concerned to ensure expeditious disposal of the problems raised before him.

Mr. Shailendra from Unnao requested the Chief Minister for an e-rickshaw while Mr. Vikas Verma from Barabanki informed Yogi ji of illegal occupation of his land and sought his intervention in vacating it.

Mr. Prateek from Mirzapur sought financial assistance from the Chief Minister to start some self-employment and Mr. Madhur from Ambedkarnagar asked for funds for treatment of his mother who is suffering from kidney ailment.

Other than these, a large number of people also met the Chief Minister and apprised him of their problems. Officers were asked by Yogi ji to ensure speedy disposal of these problems.
