

Chief Minister greets Mr M Venkaiah Naidu on being elected Vice-President

Mr Naidu's election a matter of honour for all sections of the society including farmers

Lucknow: 05 August, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji has greeted NDA candidate Mr Venkaiah Naidu on being elected the next vice-president of India. He added that his elevation to the significant post of the vice-president was a matter of great honour for all sections of the society, including the farmers.

In a congratulatory message issued here today, the Chief Minister credited the positive approach of Prime Minister Mr Narendra Modi, BJP chief Mr Amit Shah and the BJP parliamentary board because of which the country has got a vice-president like Mr Naidu, who has always discharged his duties to the best of his abilities.

Yogi ji pointed out further that Mr Naidu has had a long and illustrious public life and he comes to the new office with very rich experience. His elevation as the vice-president of India has also enhanced the honour of the rural people of the country, the Chief Minister added.
