

Chief Minister provides Rs. 1,05,50,000 for treatment of 72 needy persons from various districts for treatment of their serious ailments

This help sanctioned for treatment of serious diseases like heart, cancer, kidney, neurological, brain tumour

The Chief Minister in the past too has extended financial help of Rs 13,62,83,500 to 1119 needy people

Lucknow: 09 August, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji has sanctioned financial assistance of Rs. 1,05,50,000 for treatment of 72 needy persons from various districts for treatment of their serious ailments. This help sanctioned by the Chief Minister is for treatment of serious diseases of heart, cancer, kidney, neurological and brain tumour.

Providing this information, a state government spokesman today said that the Chief Minister in the past too has extended financial help of Rs. 13,62,83,500 to 1119 needy people.

The spokesman further said that for heart treatment funds have been released to Mr. Ramesh Chandra of Pratapgarh, Mrs. Seema Devi of Varanasi, Mohd. Tariq of Ballia, Mr. Shiv Kumar of Bhadohi, Ms. Radhika of Jhansi, Mr. Santosh Kumar Singh of Maharajganj and many others.

In the same way Mrs. Sushila Devi (Allahabad), Mrs. Manju Singh (Chitrakoot), Mr. Ramgahan (Chandauli), Master Aatish Yadav (Chandauli), Mrs. Shakuntala Chowdhary (Kaushambi), Master Suraj (Hamirpur), Master Aman Yadav (Ghazipur), Mrs. Nisha Devi (Bhadohi), Mrs. Amreeta Yadav (Siddharthanagar) and Mr. Wasiq Ali of Lucknow others and many others have been provided financial assistance for cancer treatment.

The Chief Minister has similarly given financial help to Mr. Sunil Kumar (Basti), Mrs. Indrawati (Chandauli), Mr. Deepu Gupta (Maharajganj), Mrs. Raghvi Saxena (Kanpur City), Mr. Saurabh Trivedi from Rae Bareilly and many others for treatment of kidney. Master Ashish from Chandauli district has been given financial assistance for treatment of a neuro ailment, Mohd. Islam from Varanasi and Mr. Ehsaan from Etawah for treatment of brain tumour and many more, details of which are as follows.
