

Chief Minister flags off vehicles carrying flood relief material

State Government working seriously to provide relief material to flood-affected people

Participation of social organizations, people in relief efforts expedites the process

Relief material sponsored by the state's Finance Minister

Lucknow: 29 August, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath today flagged off vehicles carrying relief material to flood affected areas. The material meant for flood victims of Gorakhpur district was contributed by various organizations and sponsored by the State's Finance Minister Mr. Rajesh Agarwal.

The Chief Minister termed this relief as a major contribution. It may be pointed out here that each flood relief material packet contains five kg flour, five kg rice, five kg potatoes, pulses, biscuit, candles, match sticks etc.

Yogi ji pointed out that the State Government was seriously and relentlessly working to provide relief material to the people affected by floods and added that government efforts get expedited by participation of people and social organizations.

He expressed satisfaction that various social groups and organizations had come forward in this noble cause. Also present on the occasion were Principal Secretary (Information) Avanish Kumar Awasthi, other officials and Shahjahanpur's Mr. Ram Chandra Agarwal and Mr. Ramakant Modi.
