

Chief Minister listens to problems of the People

Lucknow : 20 September, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji met a large number of people at his official residence today and listened to their problems. People from far flung areas of the state petitioned the Chief Minister about problems they were facing and handed him their applications.

Assuring prompt and just action on their applications, the Chief Minister also directed the concerned officials to expeditiously solve the problems raised before him by the people. Ms. Manju from Azamgarh requested help in getting her son admitted in a school while Ms. Jyoti from Bhadohi petitioned the Chief Minister for helping her get possession of her land.

Mr. Rohit Kumar from Rampur district requested for 'Divyaang Pension', Mr. Jai Prakash Tiwari from Hardoi asked of financial help for marrying off his daughter and Mr. Mahendra Kumar sought financial assistance for treatment of his spinal disease.

Other than these, a large number of other people also apprised the Chief Minister of their problems, following which the Chief Minister directed officials for prompt redressal.
