

Chief Minister listens to People's problems

Lucknow: 28 December, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji today heard out the people at his official residence. People from far flung areas of the state came to meet the Chief Minister and handed him over their petitions. The Chief Minister assured them of prompt redressal of the problems they have raised before him.

Ms. Roshni from Mathura requested the Chief Minister to get her daughter admitted to a school, Mr. Surendra from Faizabad sought financial help for treatment of his brother who is suffering from cancer. Ms. Katori Devi of Unnao district informed the Chief Minister that she has not got her pension for the past five years and similarly Ms. Munni Devi from Lucknow urged the Chief Minister for old age pension.

Other than them, a large number of people also met the Chief Minister and apprised him of their problems. Yogi ji issued on spot instructions to officials to ensure speedy and satisfactory redressal of the problems brought to him today. Also present was Minister of State (Information) Dr. Neelkanth Tiwari.
