

Chief Minister greets people, specially the youth, on Swami Vivekanand's birth anniversary

Swami ji was a great scholar of literature, philosophy and history

Chief Minister appeals to youth to study as much as possible the speeches and writings of Swami Vivekanand and to follow his ideals

Lucknow: 12 January, 2018

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji has greeted the people of the state, specially the youth, on the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekanand ji. He further recalled the immense contribution of Vivekanand ji, as a young monk, in propagating the rich culture, heritage of India in foreign countries and said that he was great scholar of history, philosophy and literature.

He also informed that Swami ji's anniversary was observed as 'National Youth Day'. In a message released here today, the Chief Minister said that Swami Vivekanand was born in Kolkata on January 12, 1863 and had renounced the world to become a sage at the age of 25 years. As the principal disciple of Saint Ramkrishna Paramhans, he gave the world a view of the Indian philosophy, with full details, logic and irrefutable evidences.

His contribution in expanding the Hindu religion would always be remembered, the Chief Minister stated further. Yogi ji also urged the people, specially the youth to study as much as possible the speeches and writings of Swami Vivekanand ji and to follow his ideals. He also repeated the popular motto of Swami Vivekanand ji : 'Arise, awake, and stop not till the goal is reached' and asked the youth to assimilate this in their lives.
