

Chief Minister listens to the problems of People

Lucknow: 11 April, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Mr Yogi Adityanath, like every day, listened to the problems of the large number of people who turned up to petition him at his official residence today. He directed concerned officials to ensure prompt redressal of the applications.

The Chief Minister also directed officials to pay heed to the problems brought to them by the people and take interest in sorting them out. Ms Aakansha from Lucknow told the Chief Minister that her school was not giving her the TC while Ms Seema from Meerut urged the Chief Minister to ensure that her name was included for ancestral property. Mr Ramesh from Mirzapur sought financial assistance for cancer treatment.

The Chief Minister ordered prompt action on all petitions received by him. At today's meeting, most cases pertained to financial assistance, agriculture records, power supply, house allotment, drinking water, land grabbing, pension, revenue, irregularities in land records, financial help for marriages, false cases, jobs and personal treatment.
