

Chief Minister listens to problems of the People

Lucknow : 12 April, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Mr. Yogi Adityanath, like every day, met a large number of people at his official residence and listened their problems and grievances. He also directed officials to take prompt action on the petitions received personally by him. The Chief Minister also asked officials to take keen interest in solving the problems faced by the people.

Ms. Shivani from Mathura informed the Chief Minister about the kidnapping of her daughter and requested his help in the matter. Ms. Ragwati from Hapur requested the Chief Minister for pension. Mr. Swatantra Kumar from Fatehpur told Mr. Yogi Adityanath about his land being grabbed by local musclemen and sought help.

The Chief Minister directed concerned officials to ensure prompt action on all the applications. At today's programme, most cases pertained to financial assistance, agriculture records, power supply, house allotment, drinking water, land grabbing, pension, revenue, irregularities in land records, financial help for marriages, false cases, jobs and personal treatment.
