

Chief Minister greets people on Baisakhi

Lucknow : 12 April, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Mr. Yogi Adityanath has greeted and wished the people of the state on Baisakhi. In a message issued today, the Chief Minister said that the festival of Baisakhi was a symbol of our rich tradition and heritage.

He further said that the festival was linked to the harvesting of the new crops and also reflected the agriculture traditions and diverse culture of the country. On this day, Sikh Guru Govind Singh ji had established the Khalsa Panth.

This day is celebrated with traditional fervour in various parts of the state under different names. All these festivals were also symbolic of the New Year. The Chief Minister has wished that the festival of Baisakhi ring in happiness and prosperity in the lives of everyone.
