Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Mr. Yogi Adityanath today paid rich tributes to Baba Saheb Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar by paying floral tributes at his statue at Hazratganj. Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Yogi said the whole country is remembering the architect of Indian Constitution, the great son of India, Baba Saheb Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar.

The entire nation is full of gratitude for Dr. Ambedkar for his contribution towards making of the Indian Constitution, the Chief Minister further said and pointed out how the great son of India strived through out his life for the dignity and equality of the last man standing, the deprived, downtrodden and the marginalized and made sincere efforts to assimilate them in the nations mainstream.

The Chief Minister also said that the State Government was committed to following the footsteps of Dr. Ambedkar in assimilating the poor, downtrodden and the deprived into the mainstream of the society and providing them a life of dignity. By treading the path shown by Baba Saheb, UP too will soon become a front ranking state in the country, the Chief Minister added.
