

Chief Minister listens to People's Problems
Officials asked to expedite redressal of problems

Lucknow : 11 May, 2017

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath met a large number of people at his official residence here on Thursday. He also directed officials to ensure that the problems raised by the people are solved at the earliest.

Mr. Ramkumar from Ambedkarnagar district requested the Chief Minister for his reinstatement in the job while Ms. Shivkumari from Sonebhadra sought financial assistance for her marriage and a house. Mr. Lal Bahadur Singh, resident of Lucknow asked for financial help for his kidney ailment.

Other than this, many other people also apprised the Chief Minister of their problems to which Yogi ji assured prompt and effective action.

Eng.PN-CM-Public Grievances Redressal -11 May, 2017