

Press Information Bureau
(CM. Information Campus)
Information & Public Relations Department, UP.

Chief Minister takes grim view of the hooch tragedy in Ghaziabad

Extends his sympathies to the bereaved families who lost their loved ones

Directives issued to district administration and police officers to inspect the scene of tragedy and take effective, stringent action against those guilty

Directives to officers to ensure that affected persons get proper treatment

Lucknow : 13 March, 2018

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji has taken a grim view of the death of people in a hooch tragedy in Ghaziabad district and has extended his sympathies to the bereaved families.

The Chief Minister also issued directives to district administration and police officers to inspect the scene of the tragedy and take effective, stringent action against those guilty. He has also asked concerning district officers to ensure that the people affected by the consumption of illicit liquor get timely and adequate treatment.

English-PN-CM-Hooch Incident in Ghaziabad-13 March, 2018.doc