

20 inmates of Govt Children Aftercare Homes depart for Bangaluru to pursue Hotel Management Course

Lucknow: July 12, 2018

The UP Minister for Women Welfare and Tourism, Prof. Rita Bahuguna Joshi, saw off at Chaudhari Charan Singh International Airport here today 20 boy and girl inmates of government aftercare homes, who have flown to Bangaluru to pursue diploma course in hotel management at Echo Institute there. These boys and girls are going there after passing out class 10th. The expenses on the course will be borne by the UP Government.

It may be recalled that the government had got admitted 19 girls in this institute for diploma in hotel management last year. They have successfully completed the course. Out of these girls, four have taken admission in degree course and four others have employed in the hotel industry. Campus interview is being organised to provide job to the remaining girls.

.....
Priya Saxena