Lucknow: 09 March, 2019

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji has deeply mourned the demise of Jagadguru Swami Ramanujacharya Purushottamacharya Ji Maharaj of Sugreev Quila, Ayodhya. He also spoke to late Swami ji's disciple Swami Vishvesh Prappanacharya ji on telephone and consoled him over the huge loss.

In a condolence message issued here today, the Chief Minister said that in the passing away of Jagadguru Swami Ramanujacharya Purushottamacharya Ji Maharaj the society had suffered an irreparable loss. Swami ji was a senior religious leader and an extremely learned person, the Chief Minister stated while adding that he discharged various spiritual and religious responsibilities ably.

The Chief Minister also pointed out how Swami ji was away from worldly matters, lead a recluse life and was always submerged into spiritual activities. Service of the sages, cows and promotion of Sanskrit along with education of students was a special area of interest fro him, the CM said further.

In his passing away, the Chief Minister said, the entire saint community was in a state of mourning and added that taking his works forward was the biggest tribute to the great Soul. Praying for peace to the departed Soul, the Chief Minister also extended his heartfelt condolences and sympathies to his teeming followers.
