

Press Information Bureau
(C.M. Information Campus)
Information & Public Relations Department, U.P.

Chief Minister Condoles Death of Four Rail Passengers In Extreme Heat Wave In Jhansi

Lucknow : 11 June, 2019

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji has has condoled the demise of four rail passengers in Jhansi, due to the extreme heat wave. Expressing his condolences to the bereaved families, the Chief Minister also prayed for peace to the departed souls.

It may be pointed out here that these train passengers were on board the Kerala Express and were headed from Agra to Coimbatore.

English-PN-CM-Jhansi Incident-11 June, 2019.doc