

Laxity in redressal of people's grievances not to be tolerated

Lucknow: August 26, 2019

The UP Deputy Chief Minister, Shri Keshav Prasad Maurya, listened to the problems of people came from distant districts at his official residence here today and assured them prompt redressal of their grievances. He directed the concerning officers to ensure redressal of their problems at the earliest.

Shri Maurya said that laxity in redressal of people's grievances at any level will not be tolerated. To resolve many cases, the Deputy CM talked to District Magistrate and senior police officers of the concerning districts through telephone and asked them to inform after disposal of problem.

.....
Priya Saxena