

523246 labourers registered under PMSMY

Lucknow: August 30, 2019

As many as 5,23,246 labourers have been registered under the Pradhan Mantri Shramyogi Mandhan Yojna (PMSMY) in the state. Giving this information, UP Labour and Employment Minister, Shri Swami Prasad Maurya, said that 6616 labourers have been registered in Lucknow, 9480 in Unnao, 6785 in Lakhimpur Kheri, 5677 in Sitapur and 18847 labourers in Hardoi districts so far under the scheme.

Labourers of the age from 18 to 40 years can get their registration done at Jan Suvidha Kendras. On completing age of 60 years, they will be given a monthly amount of Rs. 3000 throughout their life. Under any circumstances, if beneficiary labourer dies, his wife will be given a monthly amount of Rs. 1500 throughout her life. In case the beneficiary dies before 60 years of age or suffers from permanent disability, his nominee can deposit the monthly contribution to the scheme, otherwise the deposited money along with interest will be paid.

